

13.05.2025

Explanation of why 1.5 is used as a multiplier in the IQR method for outlier detection.

The multiplier 1.5 in the IQR method is a conventional value that effectively balances the sensitivity and specificity of outlier detection, derived from properties of normal distribution.